

KPM19300407

April 7th 1930

A Special Parish Meeting was held in the Institute on Monday, April 7th 1930 to consider a letter re the rural postman. After a few items was discussed it was unanimously agreed to let him have a weekly half holiday on Saturdays.

The above entry is crossed with diagonal lines and the message 'This Meeting void'. There is no indication of why it was void. Beneath is added the note:

After consideration by the Postal Authorities the above meeting came into force in January 1932.