

“The Reel KFC”

[The Kentmere Film Club]

Folk from Staveley, Ings and beyond are very, very welcome to join too.

The Kentmere Institute Committee is pleased to announce the film club's 2024/5 film programme:

2024: Sat 28th Sept 7.30pm Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid

2024: Sat 19th Oct 7.30pm Coda

2024: Sat 7th Dec. 7.30pm Shipping News

2025: Sat 18th Jan 7.30pm Woman at War

2025: Sat 8th Feb 7.30pm Wicked Little Letters

2025: Sat 22nd Mar 7.30pm ?

Membership

Membership of the Reel KFC gives you free attendance at the 6 film shows in the 2024/5 programme. Come and meet up with the community at this very, very cheerful, friendly gathering.

Annual membership signup by contacting Sheila (Institute Trustee) : email sahirstie@gmail.com or by phone 01539 821985 or whatsapp 07754189347

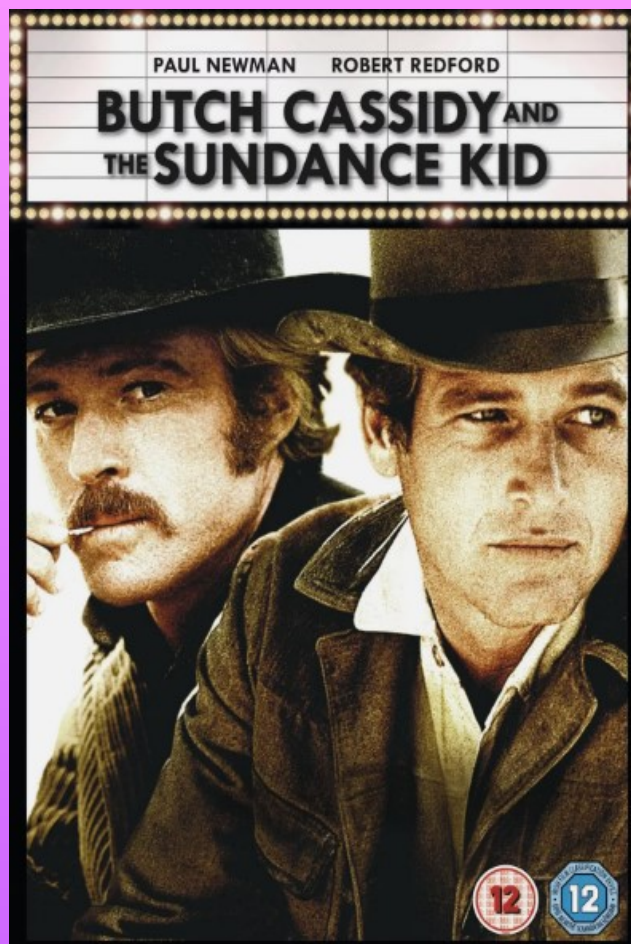

Individual Membership: £20 per year

3 or more members from same household £45 per year. Under 16s free if accompanied by a member. Non-members: £8 per film. Bring your own drinks but tea & cake provided after the film, stay & have a chat!

Saturday 28th Sept 2024 7.30pm

Butch Cassidy & the Sundance Kid

Newman and Redford as Butch and Sundance are, for many, the ultimate loveable rogue buddies in this superb light-and-dark tale of a west becoming less wild. As robbery becomes harder, they (along with schoolteacher Katharine Ross) consider going straight, enlisting or perhaps going to Bolivia. A superb movie of mixed moods and reconciled opposites: funny and serious, joyful and sad, exciting and touching, elegiac and young at heart.

Saturday 19th Oct. 2024 7.30pm

Coda

A Child of Deaf Adults, Ruby is the only hearing member of her family, who rely on her to keep their fishing business afloat. How can they understand that Ruby needs to go away to college to develop her real talent—singing? A thoughtful, tender movie with a good helping of humour.

Saturday 7th Dec. 2024 7.30pm

Shipping News

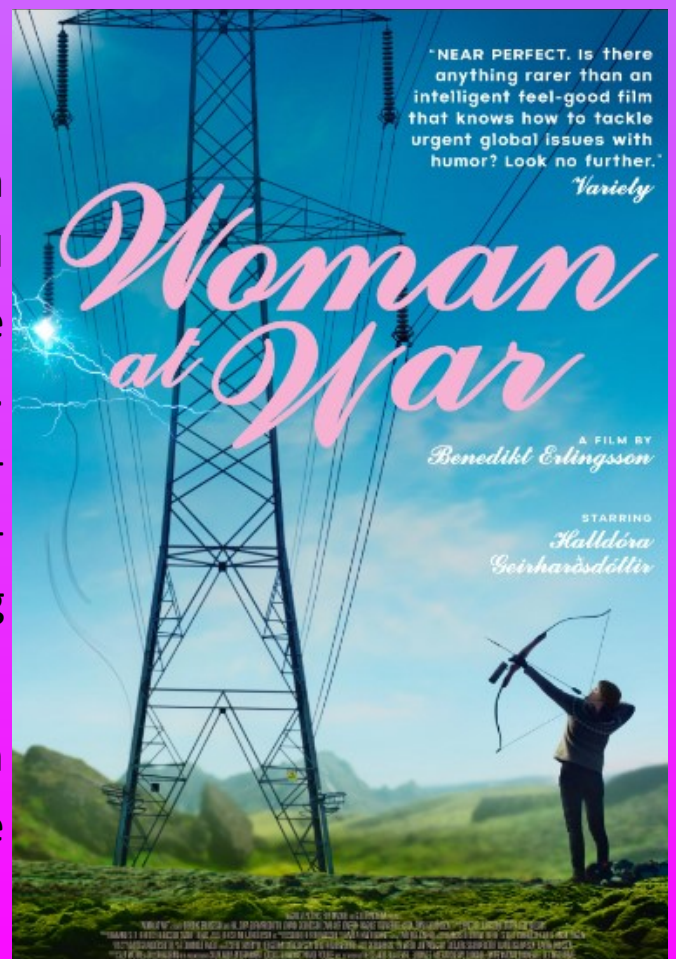

Judi Dench, Kevin Spacey, Julianne Moore and Cate Blanchette star in this deeply moving film set in a small Newfoundland fishing community. After tragedy strikes the hapless Quoyle allows an unknown aunt to take him with his daughter from New York to his ancestral home in what promises to be a disastrous move. Slowly, however, facing up to stark truths brings healing. A beautifully paced, pitched and performed version of the quite brilliant, Pulitzer prize winning novel.

Saturday 18th Jan. 2025 7.30pm

Woman at War

To her friends, Halla appears to lead a quiet and routine life. But her happy and upbeat exterior hides a secret double life as a committed environmental activist. Known to others as 'the Mountain woman' she wages a war on the local aluminium industry to protect the stunning highland landscape that is under threat. Just as she plans her biggest operation she receives a letter that will change everything. Hilarious and heartwarming.

Saturday 8th Feb. 2025
7.30pm

Wicked Little Letters

Starring Olivia Colman and Jessie Buckley. Based on a stranger-than-fiction true story, we follow two 1920s seaside town neighbours: deeply religious local Edith and rowdy, devil-may-care, Irish migrant Rose. When Edith and fellow residents start to receive wickedly poisonous letters full of profanities, foul-mouthed Rose is soon charged with the crime. However, there are those in the town who suspect that something is amiss, and that Rose might not be the culprit after all... characterful, uproarious fun.

Saturday 22nd March 2025 7.30pm

